9:00 Meeting point : The D. T. Suzuki museum

The D.T. Suzuki museum ~ Learn about Zen in a relaxing environment

First, we will head to the D.T. Suzuki museum which introduces "Zen and the Oriental Thought". There, you will be able to feel the heart of Japan which is Zen. A must-see is the Water Mirror Garden, where you will be able to touch "Daisetz's heart", "Japan's Heart" while looking at the water.

Kenrokuen Kyudo training hall ~ Archery experience

Then, we will walk to the historical Kenrokuen Kyudo training hall. There, you will experiment the traditional Japanese sport that is Kyudo (Japanese archery).

For the workshop you will change in specific Kyudo gear, and teachers and instructors from the Ishikawa Kyudo Association will teach you a sequence of actions that is called Shaho Hassetsu and which includes everything from Etiquette and posture to actually shooting an arrow. From the Kyudo training Hall we will go through the Kenrokuen Garden (Cultural Property Specification Garden and Special Scenic Spot) and the Kanazawa Castle Park and towards the tea ceremony workshop tea house: Kokoan.

Tea house: Kokoan ~ Tea ceremony experience

This tea house is linked to the Senso Soshitsu branch of the Urasenke Tea school. Mr Sokyū Nara, Master of tea at the Konnichian Urasenke Foundation will be your instructor

After that, we will walk to the Kazuemachi-Chaya district and Higashi-Chaya district, both of which are designated protected important traditional buildings areas, where the tour will end. Feel free to stroll around the geisha districts after the end of the tour. (13:45 tour breakup, thank you for joining us !)
